

The Oberoi
MARRAKECH

WELCOME TO MARRAKECH

With over a thousand years of history behind it, Marrakech captivates all who venture within its ochre-coloured walls. A city of many faces and contrasts, where the sights, smells, colours and sounds unite gloriously to compose an astounding sensorial symphony. Step inside the ancient medina, souks, riads, palaces and perfectly manicured gardens, and be transported back to the annals of history. Beyond the timeless face of Marrakech, a modern 21st century city emerges with luxury hotels, fine dining restaurants, international shopping, designer boutiques and an exhilarating cultural and nightlife scene. The diversity of its surroundings, rich history and well preserved charm, combined with the warm hospitality of its people, makes Marrakech a favoured destination with travellers from across the world.

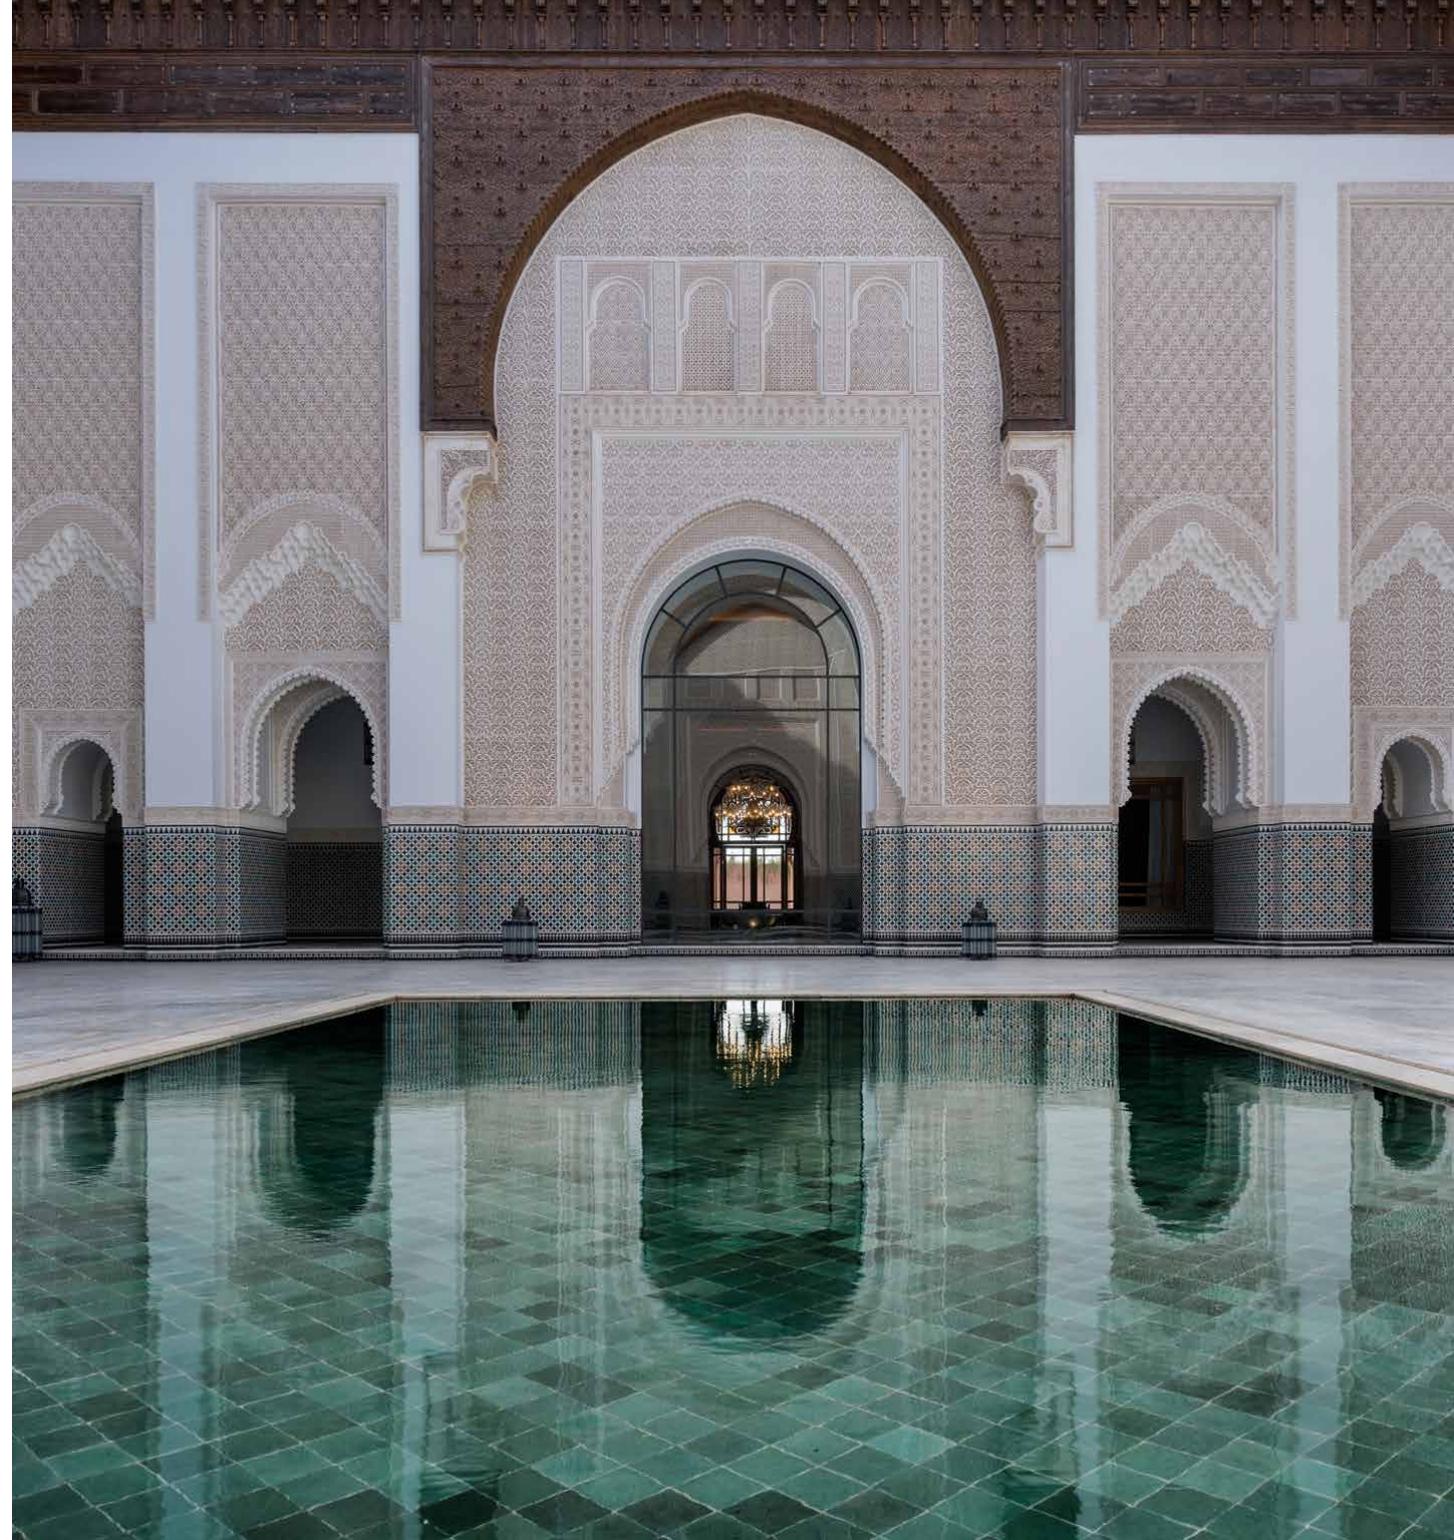

A PALACE TO CALL YOUR OWN

Located just 25 minutes from the city centre and the international airport, away from the hustle and bustle of the city, The Oberoi, Marrakech is a world unto itself. An oasis of calm, the resort features 11 hectares of beautifully landscaped gardens, fragrant citrus orchards and ancient olive groves, with magnificent views of the snow-capped Atlas Mountains. The intricacies in design and the grandeur of the resort are inspired by the magnificence of Moroccan architecture. Discover the ancient cultural heritage of Morocco and the vibrant city of Marrakech, while indulging in the tranquility and serenity of the resort.

INSPIRED BY THE MEDERSA BEN YOUSSEF

The design and intricate ornamentation of the marble, stuccowork, mosaics and carved cedar wood in the lobby and patio of The Oberoi, Marrakech is inspired by the Medersa Ben Youssef; the largest Koranic school built in the 14th century and one of Marrakech's most famous historic venues. From the moment our guests enter the palatial structure, they will be overwhelmed by its timeless elegance and artistry.

LUXURIOUS ACCOMMODATIONS
