ABOUT US

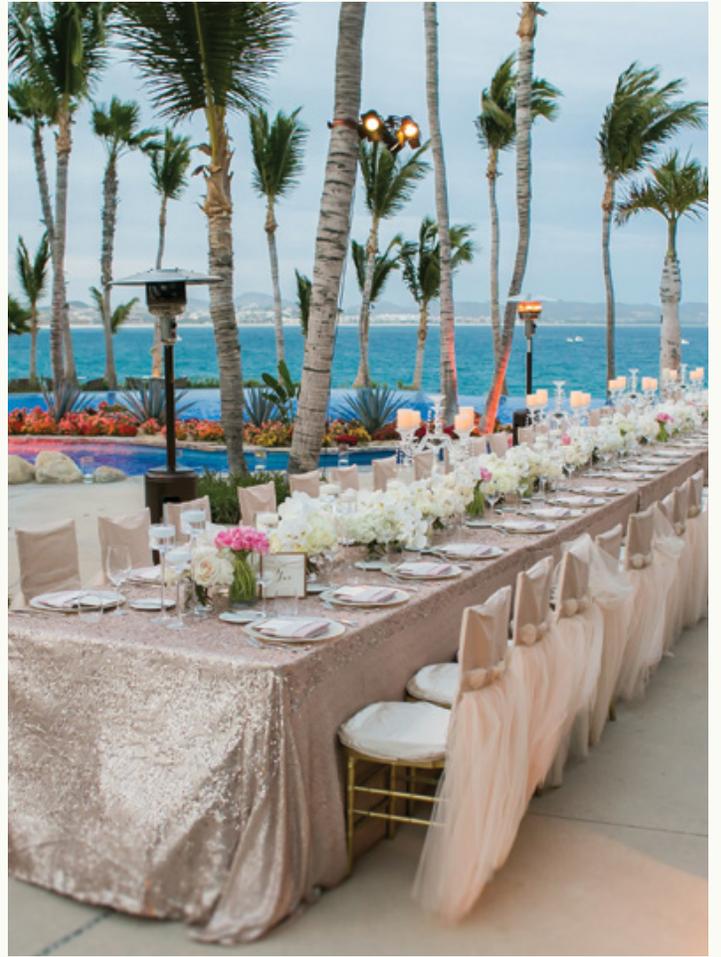

Exquisite Events is a full-scale event design and planning company based in Los Angeles producing weddings, gala affairs, and specialty events worldwide.

The company was founded and started by Nikki Khan who has been in the event planning industry for over fifteen years. From intimate sit-down dinners to grand ballrooms weddings, Exquisite Events is committed to producing a memorable and immaculate occasion for you and your guests.

Exquisite Events' experience and professionalism has been given praise from their growing list of clientele, while the beauty of their work has found recognition in numerous publications including Harper's Bazaar India, Inside Weddings, Hello! Magazine, Tatler Philippines, Luxury Wedding & Style Russia, and Grace Ormonde, to name a few.

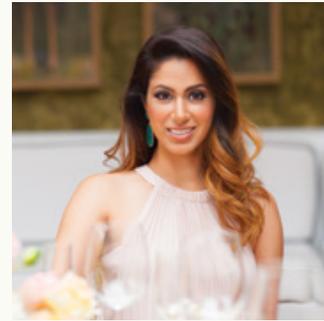

NIKKI KHAN

Nikki Khan has been a leading figure in the event planning industry for over fifteen years. From sophisticated soirees to culturally infused celebrations, Nikki ensures that all of her events are executed with the utmost in professionalism, quality and unique style.

Before graduating from UCLA, Nikki attended the prestigious Swiss Finishing School where she learned the intricacies of social etiquette necessary for producing luxury weddings. It was her passion for developing intimate client relationships and utilizing her own sense of style to produce memorable events that led to the opening of Exquisite Events. Nikki has an innate talent for providing fresh and unique ideas for each occasion and always incorporates her clients personal tastes and style to each event. Her professionalism and warm demeanor has won accolades from her ever growing list of clients while the beauty of her work has graced many publications.

MADIHA KHAN

Madiha has been involved with Exquisite Events since the inception of the Company in 2001. After a successful career in finance and banking, Madiha decided to pursue her passion for producing and designing unique events and has been at Nikki's side through countless events contributing significantly to the team's success. She continues to find inspiration in each event that she creates and is thrilled by the opportunity to explore her creative talents. Her ability to multitask and her attention to detail are the other half of the success that Exquisite Events has enjoyed over the years.

"There are moments during an event when the client stops and takes everything in, from the grandest design to the most intricate detail. The expression of delight and joy on their faces is why I love what we do!"
