Weddings

We arrange luxury weddings with a difference – a cliff top sunset ceremony, a traditional church, a modern super villa or even aboard a beautiful sailing boat – whatever the location we guarantee a magical experience.

“A quick and HUGE thank you for all your help, over the last year and also over the weekend – it was really really amazing and we, and our guests, have all had the best time – we couldn’t have done it without you!”

Emma Lupton, Wedding Client

“Thank you for organising the most fabulous party on Saturday. DSI rocks and you and your team were such great pros. It really couldn’t have been more amazing, and your creativity and execution was exceptional, and we didn’t have anything to worry about at all. We may have to do it again next year!! Thank you!”

Philip Muelder, Event Client

Corporate Events

We have the infrastructure to produce corporate events of any size and scale and the support and resource to take care of all your guests' desires. Our goal is to give each of our clients the maximum attention that they deserve.

“Deliciously Sorted organised a highly successful and well executed trip. Their invaluable advice ensured our team experienced Ibiza at its very best.”

Rimmel

“Your team is epic and we want to celebrate you! Together we made this the most incredible and unforgettable experience with so much transformation, growth, healing and love. Everyone is smiling and thinking about their growth after the love festival because we shifted some hearts from fear to love, it’s the most amazing thing we can do in life.”
