NEVER SAY 'NO'

We started as a venue management company with a pro-website in 2012 over time our distinctive approach, professionalism and structured has made a lot our clients seek our support and guidance in planning their wedding which as industry wasn't much evolved at that point of time.

Since we understood weddings and had a wide vendor network within the industry we expanded to wedding planning and eventually into décor which again was something still developing. But we take pride in understanding the craftsmanship and nuances behind wedding décor and owning an in-house production studio to deliver bespoke designs that are unique and statement-making.

“...executed beyond expectations.”

Right from the start, Marriage Colours were enthusiastic and very active in their communication. They understood what we were looking for in every event and executed beyond expectations. I loved the wedding and reception decors and it turned out better than my imagination! Super easy and fun to work with!

“..great in managing all the uncertainties..”

We really appreciated Marriage Colors’ decor for all our wedding events (Mehendi, sangeet and wedding)! They perfectly executed our vision for the events and were very flexible in working with us remotely as both of us were based overseas. They listened to all our ideas and feedback and incorporated it in iterations and shared updated mood boards to ensure everyone was on the same page. Their handover to the execution team was also seamless - our wedding was particularly stressful as we had a lot of last minute changes (due to COVID-19 and Janata Curfew on the same day) and Marriage Colors and Akram in particular, were great in managing all the uncertainties and making sure we didn’t have to worry about our decor! All our guests were raving about how good our decor looked, would highly recommend them to everyone

“...Marriage colours did not give up nor did they compromise...”

Never in a million dreams did I expect my wedding to happen under the covid 19 situation with a total lockdown being imposed only in my city, a week before my already postponed wedding date. What's more the venue was 4kms away from city limits, therefore technically becoming the neighbouring district which required passes and permission. I was disappointed and at the verge of giving up. But the Marriage Colours team did not give up nor did they compromise on delivering my dream wedding - and for that I commend and thank them for going all out in execution. That included getting vendor to deliver on time, acquiring passes and ensuring safety and sanitation.

They are an enthusiastic bunch who loves what they are doing and more importantly very client centric. They were easily accessible on calls and messages, which was key during such times when you can't meet in-person. I should also mention how the team were quick to think on their feet during these times . When the lockdown was announced , they immediately made a call to move the decor, lights and air coolers to the venue 5 days before the wedding date since it could be challenging to move during the phase. This also in a way gave us more confidence to go ahead with the wedding on the fixed date. If you want someone to treat your wedding like theirs and care for every little detail then I would definitely recommend Marriage Colours. My best wishes to Pradeep and team to continue creating memorable weddings.

WHAT OUR LOVELY CLIENTS HAD TO SAY ABOUT US

“...Creative, helpful and very approachable...”

I discovered Marriage Colours(MC) after talking to a good number of vendors and was impressed with them in our first meeting itself because I could see their professionalism and experience. It was great working with them through colour schemes and overall themes in their studio over the last 2-3 months. The team is creative, helpful and very approachable – they are always a phone call away.

My mehendi décor at home turned out great, and MC had very little time to design, plan and execute it. The entire scope was neatly documented which made things very easy for me. The wedding décor at Ramachandra was absolutely lovely and we received many great compliments from our guests. Everything about the wedding décor was just amazing – the design, the quality of work, MC’s timeliness and professionalism, I could o on and on. MC had chosen a great band and a great dhol team for our jaanavaasam – these were also great hits.

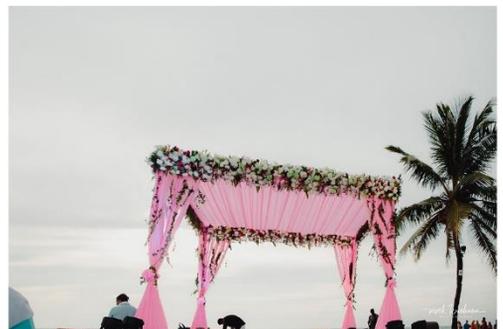

Overall, I would recommend Marriage Colours strongly.

“...being attentive to our needs...”

Marriage colors did an amazing job with our decoration for our Mehendi, Sangeet, Haldi and wedding ceremonies. We loved the bridal corner setup, the bangle stand and flower photo wall they created. The flowers they procured for all the ceremonies were of the highest quality and really livened up all the events. They created a stunning backdrop for the Sangeet stage, which are beautiful in all our pictures. We particularly enjoyed their Haldi decor the most. Our wedding mandaps for north and South Indian wedding were also very well executed. Thank you to Charanya, Paridhi and team for being attentive to our needs and making our wedding weekend a grand success.
