Luxury Wedding Connoisseur

Thanks to a successful career traveling the world with Sol Meliá Hotels & Resorts as Director of International Sales and Hyatt Hotels & Resorts as International Sales & Marketing Manager, Kimberly established herself as an expert in the travel industry at an early age.

Kimberly got into event planning when Saks Fifth Avenue recruited her to be their Director of Marketing & Special Events for their flagship store in Manhattan. In this role she planned and executed hundreds of lavish events for a host of international high-profile clients and celebrities.

In 2011 she combined her passion for travel with her event planning and hotel expertise and launched “Runaway Bride,” an international, destination wedding planning company.

After a decade of organizing and implementing luxury weddings worldwide, she sold her company and is thrilled to be a part of the ALHI family where she assists couples in finding the perfect fairytale venue in which to stage their “happily ever after.”

Kimberly has been featured in major publications such as Brides, Shape Magazine, Travel Weekly, Grace Ormonde Weddings, Style Me Pretty and more. She has also been a Romance Travel Correspondent for CBS New Travel Editor Peter Greenberg and has shared her expertise on Podcasts and by speaking at international conferences.

OUR SERVICES

VENUE SELECTION

With a portfolio of over 270 properties worldwide, Destination Weddings by ALHI can help you hone in on the perfect destination and find the ideal venue for your client's special day.

We realize that gathering information and following up on proposals can often be a daunting and time consuming task (especially when dealing with far flung destinations.) We can help with this by being your one point of contact for multiple properties and consolidate everything into an easy format for you to review and send to your client.

SITE VISIT

Once you've narrowed down this list, we can assist you with setting up site visits and facilitate all of the details including scheduling the visits, creating an itinerary, confirming all appointments and obtaining comp rooms or special site rates whenever possible.

CONTRACT NEGOTIATION

We will also assist you throughout the entire contract process, ensuring you are getting the best possible rates and special concessions from our properties.
